Things to Remember

- Our Parish Musicians and Resurrection Choir will play and sing all parish funerals. If an outside vocalist or musician/instrumentalist is requested by the family he/she may only sing or play one or two religious selections at Offertory, Communion, Communion Meditation, or Prelude. There must be prior approval with the Music Director. (It is very difficult for a close family member to play/sing at a loved one's funeral, so this is not recommended and should be taken into consideration before a request is made.)
- All printed programs must be reviewed and typed at the parish office, because attention must be given to correctness of Liturgical principles as well as careful observation of copyright laws.
- Because of the sacred nature of the Catholic Liturgy, only religious music is to be done during the Mass or before Mass. The use of non-religious music should be reserved for the funeral home or reception.
- Taped or pre-recorded music may not be used.
